SWANN

Just in time for the holidays, Swann has launched their new Smart Security Camera + SAFE by Swann surveillance app with True Detect™ Heat-Sensing Technology for more reliable detection. It's perfect for travel because the camera can keep an eye on your home, loved ones, property, and belongings while away. You will only get push notifications to alert you when a real issue is detected and you can view the camera feed from anywhere. With Swann, you can enjoy your trip knowing your packages, home, and family are safe.

GOURMIA

With Gourmia's GDK240 Electric Kettle you can enjoy more than just tea. This transparent kettle allows you to clearly see how much water is left for refilling purposes. The cordless base allows you to easily maneuver your kettle and carry it wherever you please. The programmable temperatures let you boil water at just the right temperature, you can use this kettle to make tea, oatmeal, noodles, cocoa, and more! The keep warm feature allows you to enjoy a perfectly warm cup long after you've brewed your hot water -- it will keep warm for hours. The various parts of this kettle are removable and the glass body is stain resistant, making it easy to clean and store.
